NEWS OF INTEREST

Kathy Silver would like you to have her new address: 1413 Woodbine Road, Kingston, Ontario, K7L 4V2; (613) 634-2547.

Woman to Woman Relief Project for Women refugees of the former Yugoslavia, organized by the Women's Multi-Faith Coalition in Toronto, has been extraordinary successful in it's efforts to provide individual wrapped parcels of emergency supplies to woman and children refugees of the former Yugoslavia. This project has been overwhelmed with supplies and donations from women all over Canada. Cloth bags, approximately 14" X 18", are still needed to enclosed supplies. The initial aim was to invite women to submit items such as soap, toothpaste, face cream, sanitary napkins, etc, along with a personal note of support, all wrapped in an item made of cloth such as a scarf or towel. The group will still accept donations of $10 along with a personal note of support and make up a package in your name. Inquiries should be directed to Woman to Woman c/o Laurie Buchanan, 40 Homewood Ave, #104, Toronto, ON, M4Y 2K2. Anyone who wishes to organize a similar project in Montreal should contact Lyn Adamson in Toronto at (416) 596-7328 for details.

The Inaugural Patricia Allen Memorial Lecture was given by University of Manitoba Sociology professor Jane Ursel. The title of her lecture was "The Potential of Legal Reform for Confronting Violence Against Women: A Case Study of the Family Violence Court in Manitoba."
